Against interferences of Roman Church in public affairs FACCIAMO BRECCIA calls for the Manifestation "NO VATICAN, More Self-Determination, less Vatican" in Rome, Saturday the 11th of February 2006, anniversary of the signature of Patti Lateranensi (agreements between Italian and Holy See): for reproductive rights of women (abortion, artificial conception), for gay, lesbian and transsexual rights and against every discrimination, for a public and laic education, against economic privileges of Vatican and for the cancellation of the agreements with Italian State.

Meeting at 14.00 h. in Bocca della Verità Square [Metro B Circo Massimo]. Manifestation until Campo dei Fiori, where final speeches will take place.

Facciamo Breccia is a spontaneous movement of citizens, groups, associations re-affirming a secular and laic culture, setting against the Vatican interferences on bodies and life choices, affirming the self-determination of every subject and promoting the acknowledgement of the diversity. With this aim, starting from last October, Facciamo Breccia realised initiatives and demonstrative actions in the cities of Bologna, Florence, Milan, Rome, Turin and Verona.
